DISCONTINUED: RESCUE G-LOOP (#10731)

To all Guardian Fall Protection distributors,

Effective immediately, the Guardian Fall Protection Rescue G-Loop (part #10731) is being discontinued, and all existing stock must be quarantined and returned to Guardian headquarters. All open orders for this part are being cancelled, and shipments should no longer be released to customers.

Please be aware that this discontinuation is not a result of a safety issue. No action on the part of the customer is required.

The Rescue G-Loop will be unavailable for the time being as the part is being redesigned. Once redesign is complete, it will be re-released to the market.

Please reach out to Guardian Fall Protection with any questions.

Sincerely,

Bradley Dillon | VP of Product & Business Development
